Many thanks to Marie Coen & Grace Hickey for the beautiful hydrangeas which are adorning the Church for this remembrance month of November

It's been a long time, but we are finally able to host an after mass Coffee Morning in the Parish Centre on Monday morning (15/11) after the 10.00am mass. All are welcome to attend, we look forward to seeing you all there for a cuppa and a chat.

A meeting of the Parish Liturgy Group will take place on Monday 15th at 7.00pm in the Church to plan for Advent / Christmas.

Many thanks for your very generous support of last Sunday's special collection for Trócaire, which replaced the Share collection and amounted to €1,650.

Family Offering Donation € 275 1st Collection € 450
 - thank you for your generous support

CHURCH OPENING AND MASS TIMES

There are two Masses each Sunday at 9.30am and 11.00am.

We encourage parishioners and visitors to continue to observe social distancing, to hand sanitise on entering the church and to wear a facemask at Mass. Any parishioner or visitor experiencing Covid-19 symptoms is asked not to attend Sunday Mass. The sign of peace at Mass continues to be discouraged.

Parishioners are now invited to approach the altar to receive Holy Communion. We invite those sitting in the middle two sections to approach the altar along the middle aisle and to return via the side aisles. We will then invite those sitting in the two wing sections to approach the altar along the aisle and to return via the wall.

Mass will continue to be streamed on the webcam for those who choose for the moment to continue to participate from at home:

www.glasnevinparish.ie

The church remains open each daily after mass until 5.00pm for private prayer.

N.B. all weekly mass intentions must be booked no later than Wednesday of the previous week in order to be included in the mass intentions list and in our newsletter.

We thank parishioners for your contributions to the First and Second Collections and to the Family Offering. Contributions can also be made through the 'Donate' button on the parish website: www.glasnevinparish.ie

A 'Tap and Go' machine has been installed at the entrance to the church to facilitate those parishioners and visitors who wish to contribute to the two collections at Mass without using cash. Donations made through Tap and Go machine do not contribute to the parish or pay for candles lit at the shrines.

We now have available Christmas Novena of Masses, individual Christmas Mass Bouquets and Glasnevin Parish Christmas Cards. Beidh leagan Gaeilge de na cártaí seo go léir ar fáil freisin.

Please note: The Sacristy and Parish Office are currently closed for access. If you need to contact either please phone 01-7979153 or 01-8379445 or email any requests for mass intentions, mass cards, baptismal/confirmation certificates etc. to ourladyofdoloursparish@gmail.com.

Envelopes and slips of paper for the November Altar List are available on the tables at the back of the church. Parishioners and visitors are invited to write the names of deceased loved ones they would like included on the Altar List on the slips of paper provided and enclose these in an envelope and place it in the safe. All those whose names are on the Altar list are remembered at Mass throughout the month of November and on the first Friday of every month.

Anam Cara North Dublin, the organisation that supports bereaved parents, is holding a Parent Evening for bereaved parents on Wednesday 17th November at 7:20pm in the Carnegie Court Hotel, Swords, Co. Dublin. This event is free and open to all bereaved parents regardless of the age your child died, the circumstances of their death, or whether their death was recent or not. Please contact us on info@anamcara.ie or 085 2888 888 for any queries.

Reflection: The readings this weekend remind us that the Church's year is drawing to a close. Next Sunday, the last Sunday of the Church's year celebrates Christ as universal King. A new liturgical year begins the following Sunday with the First Sunday of Advent. The liturgical year revolves around the mystery of Christ: his birth (Christmas), ministry (Ordinary time), passion (Lent), death (Holy Week), resurrection (Easter) and sending of his Spirit on the Church (Pentecost). As followers of Jesus Christ, our lives are called to revolve around him as well. Our readings speak of end times, but an ending is always at the same time a beginning. With Christ everything is new. No matter what wrong turns we make in life, we are always offered the possibility of a new beginning. This is true both for relationships with other individuals as with other nations. We are not bound by the hostilities of the past, but we can learn from them. At the ecumenical service in Glasnevin cemetery to mark Armistice day this week, involving the participation of ambassadors from France, Germany, Italy, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the UK, the following prayer was said: 'We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may together live in freedom, justice and peace.'

'We Remember' - A Service of Lament and Thanksgiving will take place at St. Columba's Church, Iona Road on Sunday 28th November at 3.00pm. The service, which will include music, reflections, poetry, and prayer, is being organised by the Glasnevin Grouping of Parishes. It provides an opportunity to remember those who have died since the onset of the pandemic, and to acknowledge those who have provided exceptional care and support through this difficult time. Those who would like a loved one who died over the past 20 months remembered at the service are invited to leave the name of the person in the basket provided at the back of the church or to submit the name to the parish secretary at glasnevinparish@gmail.com before 19th November.

On Sunday 12th December, we are holding a Glasnevin Parish Christmas Fair in the Church grounds. We would like to invite any parishioners with an interest in Arts/Crafts/Confectionery to take a stall to sell their handiwork. We hope to have stalls full of stocking fillers for Christmas. If interested, please contact the Parish Office (018379445) or Sacristy (017979153) asap for further information, as we will only have a limited number of spaces.
