CHURCH OPENING AND MASS TIMES

- * Sunday Mass times are 9.30am and 11.00am. Weekday Masses are Monday/Tuesday/Wednesday/Friday & Saturday at 10.00am. There is no mass on Thursdays
- * Parishioners and visitors are encouraged to observe social distancing, to hand sanitise on entering the church and to wear a face-mask at Mass. Holy Communion should be received in the hand.

N.B. all weekly mass intentions must be booked no later than Wednesday of the previous week in order to be included in the mass intentions list and in our newsletter.

Archbishop Dermot Farrell will celebrate Mass at 11.00am on Sunday 6th March to mark the 50th Jubilee of the opening of the present church. All are welcome to attend, and refreshments will be served in the parish centre after the Mass.

As part of the celebrations to mark the 50th Jubilee of our church, we are planning a Pilgrimage to Lourdes 2—5 September.

Obviously, given the present circumstances, all plans and the details are provisional. However, at this stage we simply wish to gauge the level of interest, so if you would like to take part, please contact the parish secretary (Tel. 01/8379445 or ourladyofdoloursparish@gmail.com) for more details.

As part of the upcoming events planned for Our Lady of Dolours Jubilee Celebrations, we will be having a photographic exhibition on display showing the rich and diverse history of our parish. We are inviting parishioners to submit photos for the exhibition. We are particularly looking for photos from the early days of the Church and the previous wooden church which was on the site. If you have any images of weddings, christenings, group communion/confirmation, parish events, pilgrimages etc that you would be happy to share with us, we would be really appreciative. Copies of photos can be either mailed to us at www.glasnevinparish.ie or dropped in to the office. For more information, contact Ailish on 0868567945 or the parish office on 018379445.

*As you are no doubt aware, preparations for the Synodal Pathway are well underway. This Initiative of Pope Francis encourages us to engage in a process of listening, so that we may discern how God is calling us as Church to respond to the needs and hopes of people today. A key aspect of the engagement will be two parish gatherings, to which everyone is invited, whether they feel connected to or distanced from church life. The gatherings will take place on Thursday 10th and 24th March from 7.00-8.30pm in the Margaret Aylward Centre for Faith and Dialogue in the grounds of the Holy Faith Convent on Glasnevin Hill. The very act of listening respectfully to one another will be an experience of synodality. This Sunday, Ciaran Coll and Maureen O’ Connor, our ‘local animators’, will explain how the process will unfold in our parish and how each of us can assist. Don’t just put these dates in your own diary: please invite at least one other person to come along; better still bring them with you!

Reflection:

Prayer for the Synodal Pathway

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

We have been advised to draw the attention of parishioners to the double yellow lines on the road outside the entrance to the church. Parishioners parking their car there while attending Sunday Mass risk getting a parking fine. We are actively pursuing the matter with the DCC Transport Advisory Group.

The members of our new Parish Pastoral Council are:

Anne Boyle, Ciaran Coll (chair), Philomena Devitt, Teresa Grennell, Seamus Greene, Linda Lamb, Michael Mahon, Joan McRory (secretary), Miriam O’Connell, Maureen O’ Connor, Colette Sanders, Fr. Paul Coyle and Fr. Richard Sheehy. We take this opportunity to thank the members of the previous Pastoral Council for the many excellent initiatives they undertook, as well as asking God’s blessing on the new Pastoral Council in this our Jubilee year. It is planned to formally commission the new PPC at Sunday Mass shortly.
