Novena for Diocesan priesthood vocations

Archbishop Dermot Farrell has shared with us that a survey conducted in the United States over seven years ago, identified that 80% of seminarians came from the 20% of parishes that actively prayed for vocations.

This Novena will be prayed after Mass in our parish over the course of nine days, starting this Sunday. Parishioners who prefer to pray this Novena at home, are invited to take one of the Novena leaflets available at the back of the church.

Christmas Novena of Masses

If you would like to have a Novena Mass said for your loved one(s) beginning on Sunday, December 17th and ending on Christmas Day, please call to the Sacristy before 12:00 any day except Thursday, to give us your details.

Christmas Cards

Our Christmas cards will be for sale at the back of the church after both Masses today.

They can also be purchased from the Parish Office before 12:00, any day except Thursday.
